Red Light Negroni 19

Olifant Genever, Tenuta Tamburtin Vermut Rosso, Campari

Up until the mid-20th century it was not uncommon to see Dutch farmers taking a nip of Genever after a morning of working the land before filling up on lunch and heading back out. It was said the uniquely Dutch spirit would awaken their appetite and keep them warm in the winter months.

As such, as a nod to our Dutch sommelier Marin van der Klooster, we recommend enjoying our Genever at the beginning of your meal - though it can feel just as at home in the middle or the end with our signature cocktail.

Egly-Ouriet

Egly-Ouriet defines, without cliché, what it means to be an artisan. Based in Ambonnay and famed for its Pinot Noir fruit, Frances Egly is an extraordinarily detailed biodynamic farmer and his wines have an undeniable sense of place.

Nebbiolo - The King of Wines

The Nebbiolo grape is a love of ours. It is the undisputed king of northwest Italy. It was a tasting with the dynamic Chiara Boschis, and in particular her Mosconi Barolo, that inspired us and led us to define what we wanted to do in our little European wine bar and restaurant. The name stands above our door, less as a geographic marker, and more as a constant reminder of this original ideal and as an ode to all of the passionate vinous artisans we look to champion here at Mosconi.
